

FEARING'S AND BON APPÉTIT MAGAZINE

PRESENT

THE OPENING

A Culinary Arts Experience to Benefit Chefs for Humanity

September 14–16, 2007
The Ritz-Carlton, Dallas

Dean Fearing

Barbara
Fairchild

Cat Cora

Join Dean Fearing, Bon Appétit Editor-in-Chief Barbara Fairchild and Bon Appétit Executive Chef and Founder of Chefs for Humanity Cat Cora for a very special weekend.

cheer Friday night's progressive cocktail and small-bites reception takes guests into the spa, event design studio, Fearing's and other delicious stops. celebrate Bon Appétit Editor-in-Chief Barbara Fairchild, Dean Fearing and Bon Appétit Executive Chef Cat Cora host a decadent breakfast and book-signing. experience Dean Fearing gives guests an exclusive behind-the-scenes tour of his kitchen, complete with a hands-on cooking class and a lunch co-hosted by Cat Cora. learn Seminars and workshops with Dean, Cat and chefs of The Ritz-Carlton include Healthy Kids, Decadent Desserts, Dean's Margaritas & Guacamole, and Tea & Sympathy at The Spa. support The weekend centerpiece is Saturday's exclusive gala dinner welcoming Dean Fearing into the renowned Chefs for Humanity Chef Council and presenting a not-to-be-missed musical surprise. Proceeds from this extraordinary evening benefit Chefs for Humanity. indulge Sunday's Signature Brunch features special guests and an indulgent close to The Opening.

For more information and to purchase tickets, call 877-683-3082 or visit www.acteva.com/go/theritzcarltondallasopening

Chefs for Humanity is a grassroots coalition of chefs and culinary professionals guided by a mission to quickly be able to raise funds and provide resources for important emergency and humanitarian aid, nutritional education and hunger-related initiatives throughout the world.